

OBEDIENCE TRAINING

CLEAR CUES. CONSISTENT RULES. BETTER EVERYDAY COMMUNICATION.

Obedience training teaches the dog and owner a shared, practical language for everyday life. It can prevent or improve many everyday problems, but behaviour driven by fear, anxiety, aggression or strong reactivity may require a separate assessment and is not solved by commands alone.

WHAT THE SERVICE INCLUDES

1 Four Foundation Skills

BUILD THE ESSENTIAL SHARED LANGUAGE

- Recall - returning to the owner when called
- Sit - taking a settled position on cue
- Down - lying down calmly on cue
- Stay - remaining in position until released

2 Everyday Rules & Manners

MAKE THE SKILLS USEFUL AT HOME

- Calm behaviour around doors, food and visitors
- Waiting, settling and age-appropriate impulse control
- Consistent boundaries shared by the household
- Using cues to guide everyday choices and routines

3 Practice & Reliability

BUILD SKILLS BEYOND THE FIRST LESSON

- Coaching for both the dog and the owner
- Gradually adding duration, distance and distractions
- Improving timing, consistency and communication
- Further skills can be added once the foundations are understood

BOOKING & CANCELLATION POLICY

Payment: Sessions are charged per appointment, not by the hour. A session usually takes around 60-90 minutes, depending on the dog and the work required. Individual sessions and other plans may be paid per session or in advance. The discounted 5-session programme is payable in full when booking and is non-refundable if the client decides not to continue. This does not affect statutory consumer rights.

Cancellations: Please give at least 24 hours' notice to cancel or reschedule. The first cancellation with less than 24 hours' notice may be rescheduled without charge. After a second late cancellation, advance payment is required before another booking; that payment is not refunded if the rearranged session is again cancelled with less than 24 hours' notice.
